Course Workshop “Virtual International Collaborations” from March 9th to June 19th, 2020

Universidad Veracruzana, as part of its internationalization at home program, invites faculty abroad to register for the Course Workshop “Virtual International Collaborations” (VIC). It will be taught online on the EMINUS platform (our institutional educational platform) from March 9th to June 19th, 2020. The course will be 30 hours long. The aim of the course is to guide participants in the development of an educational intervention with an international partner.

For this intervention partners will design a syllabus for a course. This syllabus will include international and intercultural student learning outcomes, tasks, e-Tools, an evaluation and a calendar. The syllabus is expected to be taught between August 2020 and January 2021.

Participants' profile:

- A2 (preferably B1) English language proficiency level.
- ICT skills
- Openness to collaborative and interdisciplinary work.
- Good time management skills.
- Have at least a course to be taught between August 2020 and January 2021.

*Participants who successfully complete the course will receive a certificate of completion.
